DETAILED ACTION

In response to after-final amendment filed 8/28/2006, claims 1-11, 13, 15-28, and 30-38 are pending in this application. Finality of this application is withdrawn in view of the new ground of rejection under 35 U.S.C. 101 set forth below.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC §101

35 U.S.C. 101 reads as follows:

Whoever invents or discovers any new and useful process, machine, manufacture, or composition of matter, or any new and useful improvement thereof, may obtain a patent therefor, subject to the conditions and requires of this title.

Claims 7-12 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 101 because the claimed invention is directed to non-statutory subject matter.

Claims 1-11, 13, 15-28, and 30-38 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 101. The language of the claims is merely directed to an abstract idea that is not tied to a physical transformation which would result in a practical application producing a concrete, useful, and tangible result to form the basis of statutory subject matter under 35 U.S.C. 101. As claimed, the end result provided is a plurality of solved differential equations. The claimed solved differential equations in the overall process or machine does not clearly integrate with the other elements of the apparatus or process in order to produce a concrete, useful, and tangible result to a user. Applicant should consider amending the claims to include: an output device, such as display device 42 described in the specification, or any physical transformation of the differential equations that provides a concrete, tangible, and useful end result to a user for simulating the pressure dynamics of the intracranial system.

A process that consists solely of the manipulation of an abstract idea is not concrete or tangible. See In re Warmerdam, 33 F.3d 1354, 1360, 31 USPQ2d 1754, 1759 (Fed Cir. 1994).

Allowable Subject Matter

The indicated allowability of claims 12 and 29 (now cancelled and integrated into independent claims 1, 18, 34-38) is withdrawn in view of the new Rejection under 35 U.S.C. 101. Claims 1-11, 13,

Art Unit: 3715

15-28, and 30-38 would be allowable if rewritten or amended to overcome the rejection under 35

U.S.C.101, set forth in this Office action.

Response to Arguments

Applicant's arguments with respect to claim 1-11, 13, 15-28, and 30-38 have been considered but are moot in view of the new ground(s) of rejection.
